Dear Supporter of the Kentucky Poultry Federation:

Greetings from the Kentucky Poultry Festival Committee. Our Golf Scramble and Sporting Clay events are on Saturday, October 4th. These events are essential parts of our fundraising efforts. We continue to need your help and support! Participation, attendance, and sponsorship opportunities for these events are still available. Because of you and the rest of the allied industry, we can help support and champion the cause for our industry throughout the state. Funding for these goals continues to be a challenge. We all must band together to continue this support. Jamie Guffey, KPF Executive Director, and I want to thank you in advance for helping to achieve our goals. For easy online payment and event registration, scan the QR code below. It will take you to the KPF page of the Handbid app.

ET on the 18-hole course in a shotgun start format consisting of teams of 4 playing in a Best Ball Scramble.

The sporting clay event will be held at Elk Creek Hunt Club & Resort, 1860 Georgetown Road, Owenton, KY 40359, (502) 484-4569, (55 Minutes from the hotel). Sporting clay shooting has escalated to be one of the fastest-growing sports in the country, and Elk Creek Hunt Club & Sporting Clays is unmatched in its world-class sporting clay facilities. There will be a complimentary lunch and prizes after the event.

The Kentucky Poultry Federation needs your help in procuring funds for the operations of the Executive Director's Office. I hope we can again count on you to be a sponsor of the 2025 Kentucky Poultry Festival Golf Scramble and/or the Sporting Clay Shoot. Sponsorship is only $500. As before, these sponsorships will be recognized by signage at the event and throughout other events during the festival. A listing of sponsors will be included in the Hall of Fame Banquet slide show and newsletter.
